

Black-capped Chickadee

I saw a Black-capped Chickadee,
sitting in a tree.
It said "Pheeby!"
Then another one came
and sat next to the first,
who gave him an excited look.
The first one said "Pheeby!"
and the second, "Chickadee-dee-dee-dee!"
When one more fella flew to the tree!
He looked at the first Chickadee
who was saying "Pheeby!"
than at the second
who was saying
"Chickadee-dee-dee-dee!"
He looked at them both
with a bored expression,
and out of his beak
came the best sound of all,
out of his beak came a terrible

ROAR!!

Theres only one Chickadee
left any more.
