

Crazy Nature

One Sunny morning Amy went outside to play. The sun was out, the clouds were white and fluffy, the birds were chirping, and the butterflies were flying. Amy said, "Nature how lovely can you be sometimes. You can be beautiful just like today! And other times you can be not so pretty".

Amy decided to go for a walk in the woods on her trail. The sun was shining through the trees. While Amy was walking on the trail in the woods she was thinking she never knew how lovely nature could be.

Amy heard a noise and looked up at the tree and there was a squirrel.

It was brown and blending in with the trees very good, Amy thought.

Amy started walking back to the house. When she got back she laid on the grass and watch the clouds go by. It was such a beautiful day, but all at once the clouds started to go dark, the wind picked up and Amy felt a drop of rain. She screamed "OH NO, IT'S STARTING TO RAIN!" Amy did not want it to rain. She wanted to be outside within nature, with the birds singing and the butterflies flying around. She just wanted to be with all the pretty nature. Amy was thinking maybe the rain will pass. After about 5 minutes it started to rain even harder. Amy was very mad. So she had to go inside, and looked out the window. It was pouring. She saw puddles and mud. She thought this nature is not so pretty. It rained for the rest of the evening. Amy was so disappointed that she could not go outside and play. Amy told her mom before she went to bed that she was upset that she couldn't go outside and play anymore that day. Amy went to bed upset. She was laying there thinking, as she heard the rain and thunder on her roof. She thought, wow this sound is relaxing. Maybe I like this part of nature too.
